Macomb County Community Services offers commercial driver's license class

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Macomb County residents interested in a career in transportation are encouraged to participate in a free county program to get a commercial driver's license.

Offered by the Macomb County Community Services Agency (MCCSA), the four-week vocational training class includes hands-on experience in pre-trip vehicle inspection and on-the-road instruction.

Anyone who completes the class will receive a commercial driver's license (CDL-B).

Those wishing to participate in the program must:

- Be at least 21 years old
- Complete a pre-enrollment interview with the MCCSA CDL program staff
- Meet Michigan CDL driving record eligibility (including possession of a valid driver's license)
- Meet requirements of the Department of Transportation physical exam
- Meet the program eligibility guidelines set up by Michigan Works! (for eligibility, call Clinton Township, 586-263-1501; Mount Clemens, 586-469-7702, or Roseville, 586-447-9200)

Since the program enrolled its first student in August 2000, more than 200 people have completed the program and received their licenses.

Classes meet Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. New students are accepted each Monday.

For more information, call 586-469-7998.

About Macomb County

Macomb County is an enriching community in Southeastern Michigan that has one of the state's fastest rates of growth. Its 841,000 residents make it Michigan's third-largest county, with direct access to Lake St. Clair and Anchor Bay, and a host of cultural and entertainment options. Its highly skilled workforce and investment in new and expanding businesses make it open to enterprise. Active civic leadership translates into balanced budgets and Michigan's second-lowest tax rate. An increasingly diverse population and high quality of life make Macomb County accessible to all.
